Good Governance Assessment:

Good governance practices are assessed through an informal process as appropriate in light of the circumstances of each individual case as part of every due diligence process prior to any investment made by the Fund. Moreover, if the Fund becomes aware of severe governance issues in the portfolio companies, it will investigate them and work with all parties involved to find an appropriate solution during the term of the Fund. The Fund will either exclude the target or if deemed feasible, will cause the target to promote sustainability factors in the target's business.

With regards to corporate governance, the factors that are analyzed are related to anti-competitive behavior, bribery and corruption, data privacy data protection and AML.

Proportion of investments

The Fund will invest fully in line with its investment strategy and investment restrictions, i.e., will only make investments which are aligned with its environmental or social characteristics (i.e., its investment exclusions) The Fund does not make and does not intend to make sustainable investments within the meaning of Art. 2 (17) SFDR or environmentally sustainable investments within the meaning of Art. 3 Taxonomy Regulation (EU 2020/852) ("EU Taxonomy"); hence, no portion of its investments will be aligned with the EU Taxonomy.

Monitoring of environmental or social characteristics

The Fund has an increased awareness on the impact of environmental or social characteristics on risk management and thus on the value potential of investments. Prior to making an investment, the Fund assesses the attainment of its environmental and/or social characteristics with respect to every (potential) portfolio company. In order to monitor the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund (i.e., its investment exclusions), the Fund consults with the portfolio companies in regular intervals and will carry out further checks in order to identify potential issues with such characteristics. Therefore, the Fund monitors compliance with its environmental or social characteristics (i.e., its investment exclusions) on an ongoing basis. External monitoring mechanisms are not in place.

Moreover, the Fund obtains further voluntary ESG KPIs from ESG questionnaires which the portfolio companies are asked to fill out on an annual basis.

Methodologies for environmental or social characteristics

Currently the Fund applies qualitative and quantitative assessments with regard to its environmental or social characteristics (i.e., its investment exclusions). The Fund conducts its initial assessment in the course of its due diligence prior to any investment. Based on the results of such assessment the Fund identifies whether the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund are met.

In order to measure how the environmental or social characteristics are met during the holding period, the Fund consults with the portfolio companies in regular intervals. The Fund obtains information from ESG questionnaires which the portfolio companies are asked to fill out on an annual basis.

Data sources and processing

In order to attain each of the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund (i.e., its investment exclusions), the Fund obtains most of the relevant data from its (potential) portfolio companies. Moreover, during the holding period, the Fund obtains information via ESG questionnaires which the portfolio companies are asked to fill out on an annual basis. Hence, data is obtained only from the (potential) portfolio companies. An internal or external review or verification of the information obtained will be carried out if misrepresentations are suspected. The results of the data obtained are considered in the investment decision.

Limitations to methodologies and data

The information collected from the (potential) portfolio companies as part of the due diligence carried out by the Fund is internally or externally verified only if and to the extent misrepresentations are suspected. Thus, it cannot be ruled out completely that false information may remain undetected in certain cases. As the Fund's investments are made for several years, the Fund considers it a priority to establish and maintain a trustful working relationship with its portfolio companies in order to ensure compliance with the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund (i.e., its investment exclusions).

Due diligence

An initial assessment of how an investment relates to the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund (i.e., its investment exclusions) is carried out as part of the due diligence process. As a rule, qualitative statements of an environmental or social nature or relating to corporate governance are requested from the portfolio companies and then taken into account in the investment decision-making process. An internal or external review or verification of the information obtained will only be carried out if misrepresentations are suspected.

Engagement policies

Engagement is not part of the environmental or social investment strategy of the Fund. However, where relevant, the Fund will use the findings of the due diligence and the annual ESG Questionnaire as a foundation to establish a dialogue with the company. The Fund in general strives to raise further awareness for ESG matters in the portfolio companies' daily businesses and will seek to implement – if not in place – a plan to establish ESG processes as well as a performance plan for material ESG issues.

Designated reference benchmark

No index has been designated as a reference benchmark to meet the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund.
